An additional coffee bar or entertaining station sits across the kitchen with room for a wine fridge with more cabinetry and a quartz counter. The family room enjoys an inset gas fireplace with brick surround and an upper mantel with a wood slat wall, built-in millwork with open display shelving and cabinetry for storage, and direct access to the back deck through large sliding glass doors. A rear mudroom with a built-in closet and bench also takes you outside to the double detached garage, while an elegant powder room finishes off the main floor.
