Pub Rmks: This custom-built, luxury home sits on 12.4 scenic acres just 20 minutes from High River, offering 6,269 sq. ft. of meticulously crafted living space. Designed to blend rustic charm with modern amenities, the home is a masterpiece of craftsmanship and thoughtful design. The main floor features walnut hardwood flooring and porcelain tile, creating a warm yet refined atmosphere. The vaulted cedar ceilings in the grand living room add to the sense of openness, with the room anchored by a striking wood-burning fireplace made from Arizona Sedona Red Sandstone, a true focal point of the space. Large windows surround the living area, flooding it with natural light while offering unobstructed, breathtaking views of the Rocky Mountains and river valley. The design allows the beauty of the outdoors to feel like an integral part of the home. The open-concept layout flows seamlessly between the living room, kitchen, and dining area, making it perfect for both everyday living and large family gatherings. The kitchen is a chef's dream, featuring granite countertops, a high-end gas range, and Mission Style cabinetry made from quarter-cut English Oak. The primary suite on the main floor features a spacious bedroom, complete with a luxurious ensuite bathroom designed for relaxation. The basement is partially finished, offering a world of possibilities for customization. Currently, it features a large gathering space with a gas fireplace, perfect for cozy nights with family or friends. Rough-ins are already in place for a future kitchen or wet bar. Two additional bedrooms and rough-ins for a full 4-pc and 2-pc bathroom are also located in the basement. A unique feature of the home is the outdoor elevator, which makes moving larger items to and from the basement a breeze. Beyond its beauty and comfort, the home is also highly energy-efficient. The radiant and zoned heating system ensures that the home stays comfortable year-round, while the Unico heating system offers an additional layer of climate control.
